Kulal, originally constructed in 1910 for the son of Frederick Piesse, is a home deeply woven into the fabric of Katanning's history. Rich in character and heritage, it stands as a rare opportunity to own a truly significant local residence.

Framed by wide, wraparound verandahs and surrounded by established gardens, the home immediately captures the charm of its era. Inside, soaring ceilings, generously proportioned rooms and beautiful leadlight windows reflect the craftsmanship and elegance of the time.

The layout offers both space and versatility, featuring a formal dining room and a substantial lounge, each
